

Church Matters: What binds our hearts together?

A commitment to moral purity

Pastor Andrew / FBC Leadville / 12.2.18

Key Idea

God's new covenant people should be tightly bound together as they pursue biblical purity together.

What is moral purity?

A commitment to moral character...
that abstains from the unguarded lusts of the unregenerate world...

1 John 2:15-17

1 Peter 2:9-12

1 Thessalonians 4:3

and complies to biblical expectations for redeemed worshippers.

2 Timothy 2:19-22

1 Peter 1:13-16

How should we practice moral purity?

By zealously embracing the greater satisfaction of our relationship with God

1 Corinthians 6:18-20

By firmly trusting and faithfully obeying the Word of God

Psalm 119:9-11

Ephesians 5:25-27

By sacrificially considering other children of God

Hebrews 10:19-25

Without Defrauding

1 Thessalonians 4:3-8

With Loving Deference

1 Corinthians 8

Romans 14

So What?

Are you obeying God in moral purity?

Are you embracing the greater satisfaction of your relationship in Christ?
